

Cape Atlantic Intergroup Bi-Annual Inventory
May 4th, 2024

8:45AM: "Doors" open

Inventory begins @ 9:15 am:

- Serenity Prayer
- Opening Remarks-Joe E. Area 45 Alternate Delegate
- Spiritual Reading-Michelle CAIG Co-Chair
- History of Cape Atlantic Intergroup-Doug G. CAIG Policy/Charter Chair
- Group Inventory Discussion
- 5 Minute Energy Break
- Inventory Debrief
- Closing Remarks-Dawn I. CAIG Chair

Table 1

1. Cape Atlantic Intergroup's panel and Committee Chairs are trusted servants, whose aim is to carry out the collective conscience of our area's groups. How well do you believe the groups are being served by CAIG? Is the collective conscience being carried out? Do you have suggestions on how we might better serve your groups or comments on how these goals are being achieved?
2. Do you recognize that CAIG is using the steps, traditions and concepts in guiding our decisions and actions when we conduct business at meetings and events? In what ways, and if not, do you have suggestions on how we can improve?
3. Do you enjoy Intergroup Business Meetings? What do you enjoy most? Least? How might we improve meetings to encourage and retain Intergroup Reps and general attendance?
4. How well is CAIG using contributions to provide services to the groups in our Intergroup? The Fellowship? Do our members understand where their contributions are being used and why? How can we better educate them?
5. If you could change one thing in the CAIG, what would it be? What do you most enjoy or support regarding the service work of CAIG?

Table 2

1. Cape Atlantic Intergroup's panel and Committee Chairs are trusted servants, whose aim is to carry out the collective conscience of our area's groups. How well do you believe the groups are being served by CAIG? Is the collective conscience being carried out? Do you have suggestions on how we might better serve your groups or comments on how these goals are being achieved?
2. Do you recognize that CAIG is using the steps, traditions and concepts in guiding our decisions and actions when we conduct business at meetings and events? In what ways, and if not, do you have suggestions on how we can improve?
3. Do you enjoy Intergroup Business Meetings? What do you enjoy most? Least? How might we improve meetings to encourage and retain Intergroup Reps and general attendance?
4. How well is CAIG using contributions to provide services to the groups in our Intergroup? The Fellowship? Do our members understand where their contributions are being used and why? How can we better educate them?
5. Start, Stop, Continue-What would you like to see Cape Atlantic start to do? What would you like them to stop doing? What would you like to see them continue?

Table 3

1. Cape Atlantic Intergroup's panel and Committee Chairs are trusted servants, whose aim is to carry out the collective conscience of our area's groups. How well do you believe the groups are being served by CAIG? Is the collective conscience being carried out? Do you have suggestions on how we might better serve your groups or comments on how these goals are being achieved?
2. Do you recognize that CAIG is using the steps, traditions and concepts in guiding our decisions and actions when we conduct business at meetings and events? In what ways, and if not, do you have suggestions on how we can improve?
3. Do you enjoy Intergroup Business Meetings? What do you enjoy most? Least? How might we improve meetings to encourage and retain Intergroup Reps and general attendance?
4. How well is CAIG using contributions to provide services to the groups in our Intergroup? The Fellowship? Do our members understand where their contributions are being used and why? How can we better educate them?
5. Cape Atlantic Intergroup business meetings are hybrid. Is this important to your groups? In what ways? Is it helpful in encouraging attendance? Is the information regarding joining online communicated by CAIG effectively?

Table 4

1. Cape Atlantic Intergroup's panel and Committee Chairs are trusted servants, whose aim is to carry out the collective conscience of our area's groups. How well do you believe the groups are being served by CAIG? Is the collective conscience being carried out? Do you have suggestions on how we might better serve your groups or comments on how these goals are being achieved?
2. Do you recognize that CAIG is using the steps, traditions and concepts in guiding our decisions and actions when we conduct business at meetings and events? In what ways, and if not, do you have suggestions on how we can improve?
3. Do you enjoy Intergroup Business Meetings? What do you enjoy most? Least? How might we improve meetings to encourage and retain Intergroup Reps and general attendance?
4. How well is CAIG using contributions to provide services to the groups in our Intergroup? The Fellowship? Do our members understand where their contributions are being used and why? How can we better educate them?
5. Does the current agenda, format and scheduling of the CAIG meetings and events effectively address communication and the business to be conducted? If not, how can CAIG more effectively conduct its business?